

THE PROVINCIAL COURT OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

Effective Date: 04 July 2025

CRIM 05

PRACTICE DIRECTION

HEARING OF BAIL APPLICATIONS

Background

Since the Spring of 2021, the Court implemented the Northern Bail Pilot Project, a virtual bail initiative comprised of a technology stream (video and telephone enabled appearances) and a process stream (use of a Microsoft Teams channel and dedicated JCMs and sheriffs to canvass the hearing list and facilitate an accused person's access to legal counsel). The goal was to find ways to ensure that the bail system operated as effectively and efficiently as possible to enable timely bail hearings before judges/justices where all accused were represented by legal counsel, if they chose. The Pilot expanded to the Interior Region (in April 2022) and the Island Region (in January 2023) as reflected in the CRIM 14 Practice Direction: Northern, Interior and Island Bail Pilot Project. Under the Pilot, bail hearings during court sitting hours in these Regions are conducted by judges attending remotely in virtual courtrooms using the Microsoft Teams ("Teams") videoconference platform. Counsel and the accused also attend remotely by Teams. Evaluations have demonstrated benefits of centralized virtual bail hearings, including: allowing trials in smaller locations to proceed without being interrupted by bail hearings, reducing trial continuations, reducing displacement of accused people from their own communities and community supports, and increasing access to duty counsel. As such, the directions previously set out in the CRIM 14 Practice Direction will continue.

In examining the goals associated with virtual bail in the Northern, Island and Interior Regions, community displacement in the Lower Mainland is not as significant a concern, as correctional centres are located in the proximity of courthouses and communities and public transportation is available. Duty counsel has always been assigned to most court locations in the Fraser and Vancouver Regions so the need for timely access to duty counsel for all accused is already available. There are also daily bail/mixed remand courts in Vancouver, Richmond, Surrey, Abbotsford, and Port Coquitlam. Therefore, while the bail courtrooms in the Fraser and Vancouver Regions will incorporate many of the virtual bail processes from the Northern, Island and Interior Regions, they will remain hybrid bail courtrooms. This allows for remote and in-person appearances by counsel and the judge, while the accused appears remotely by video in those bail hearings, with the ability for JCMs to schedule in-custody and out-of-custody dispositions into available court time.

Accordingly, the Court is setting out its directions relating to the hearing of all bail applications in the Province in this single consolidated Practice Direction.

Purpose

The purpose of this practice direction is: (1) to provide directions for the processing and hearing of bail applications throughout the Province; and (2) to rescind and replace CRIM 14 Northern, Interior, and Island Bail Pilot Project (effective September 18, 2023) and Notice 26 Chilliwack Provincial Court Bail Pilot Project (effective November 16, 2023).

Application

This practice direction applies to bail hearings for all adult and youth criminal.

Directions

I. Weekday Bail Hearings During Regular Court Sitting Hours

Bail hearings will continue to be heard in virtual bail courtrooms in the Northern, Interior, and Island Regions and in hybrid bail courtrooms in the Vancouver and Fraser Regions. These hearings are assigned to be heard by judges.

In this Practice Direction, Part A applies to the Northern, Interior, and Island Regions; Part B applies to the Vancouver and Fraser Regions; and Part C applies to all Regions, unless otherwise noted.

A. Northern, Interior, and Island Regions (Virtual Bail Courtrooms)

1. Weekday bail hearings during regular court sitting hours regarding adult and youth criminal matters in the Northern, Interior, and Island Regions will be conducted by judges attending remotely by Teams videoconference in virtual courtrooms (“virtual bail hearings”). The accused will also attend remotely by Teams videoconference or audioconference at the virtual bail hearings. Duty or defence counsel and Crown counsel must appear by Teams videoconference or apply to the Court to appear by audioconference only (see Notice 21 Remote Attendance in the Provincial Court).
2. The virtual bail hearings are heard in two virtual courtrooms in each of the three Regions:

- VR1 and VR2 for the Northern Region;
- VR3 and VR4 for the Interior Region; and
- VR8 and VR9 for the Island Region.

See Appendix “A” for the virtual courtroom catchments. Please note the virtual courtrooms and the assigned catchments are subject to change.

B. Vancouver and Fraser Regions (Hybrid Bail Courtrooms)

3. Except for Robson Square, Downtown Community Court, Surrey Intimate Partner Violence Court, and Surrey Youth Court that will continue to operate in the manner they have to date, the bail courtrooms in the Vancouver and Fraser Regions will remain “hybrid bail courtrooms”. In hybrid bail courtrooms, the judge and counsel may attend the bail hearing either remotely or in person (except the 9:00 a.m. and 1:15 p.m. triage sessions which counsel must attend remotely by video), and the new in custody accused attends remotely by video as follows:

C. All Regions

4. The daily bail hearing schedule will be:

9:00 a.m. to 9:30 a.m.¹	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Virtual Bail Judicial Case Managers (“Bail JCM(s)”) attend by Teams videoconference in VR1 for the Northern Region, VR4 for the Interior Region, VR8 for the Island Region, and via the Teams triage meeting links for the Vancouver and Fraser Regions to triage matters to finalize the morning remand hearing list.• All counsel having files on the morning remand list must attend by Teams videoconference at 9:00 a.m. unless they have connected with the Bail JCM, or filed a Consent Remand Form or Consent Requisition Form with the Bail JCM, prior to that time.• Duty counsel are required to attend by Teams videoconference at the 9:00 a.m. triage to see if their assistance is required on any of the files on the morning remand hearing list.• Counsel on matters stood down by the Bail JCM at the 9:00 a.m. triage are to keep the Bail JCM informed of what is happening on their matter and must do so by no later than 10:30 a.m.• The Bail JCM may schedule other matters besides bail hearings in the mornings provided the parties consent to appearing remotely and the matters can be concluded in the morning without impacting the operation of bail hearings scheduled for that morning. The Bail JCM may also schedule bail hearings to other available courts where necessary and counsel are available.
9:30 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Hearings for accused persons remanded in custody to Correctional Centres in the Province or in custody at police stations and courthouses.
By 12:30 p.m.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• The Crown will submit to the applicable court registry a bail package for each new in custody accused person by 12:30 p.m., unless on the rare occasions Crown has confirmed otherwise with the applicable court registry in advance.• Upon receipt, the court registry will process the bail package, including signing tele-informations and adding required files. Once a bail

	package is processed, the court registry will schedule the new in-custody file into JUSTIN, which will update the Court Digital Display System (“CDDS”). The court registry will initially schedule all files for 5:00 p.m. as a holding position.
1:15 p.m. to 1:30 p.m.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. At 1:15 p.m., the following individuals must meet by Teams videoconference in each virtual/hybrid bail courtroom to as best as possible finalize the order the afternoon files are to be called in that court (the “afternoon list”): <ol style="list-style-type: none"> A. All Crown with conduct of any of the afternoon files; B. Duty counsel with conduct of the afternoon files; C. Any defence counsel who intend to speak to an afternoon file; D. A registry coordinator (may appear in more than one virtual courtroom); and E. A sheriff coordinator (may appear in more than one virtual courtroom). 2. The Crown will lead the afternoon triage with equal participation from duty/defence counsel to schedule as much of the afternoon list as they are able prior to the start of court. The registry coordinator will record from the Crown and duty/defence counsel the afternoon list and they will ensure the Crown and duty/defence counsel are aware of all files on the afternoon list at that time. 3. The following principles guide how the afternoon list is set: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> A. All the parties should inform themselves of the time of arrests, to ensure compliance with Criminal Code, sections 493 and 503. B. Counsel must be reasonably accurate in their estimation of the length of time required for contested bail hearings. Failure to complete contested bail hearings in the estimated time may result in the hearing being stood down until the completion of the afternoon list or adjourned to another day. C. Except in cases where compliance with section 503 (24-hour time limit) requires an immediate appearance, the parties must make

	reasonable efforts to ensure when a matter is called that the appearance will be meaningful and not simply spoken to and stood down. Files that are not ready to be spoken to will remain scheduled at 5:00 p.m. and not called until counsel are ready for something meaningful to happen with them. Once ready for the files to be called, counsel must immediately advise the sheriff coordinator on the separate private MS Teams channel (not the live courtroom chat). D. Files approaching the 24-hour time limit will be given scheduling priority provided, after consultation with the judge, they can be completed during the afternoon court sitting bearing in mind all the other files scheduled for court that afternoon. These files may also be called briefly to meet the 24-hour time limit and then stood down until later in the afternoon if time permits, or adjourned to another courtroom where applicable, or to another day. E. Subject to the above, youth files (and women on the Island only) have the highest priority in the afternoon list followed by consent releases. Files simply being adjourned to another day have the third highest priority and thereafter, files should be set in the afternoon list based on time estimates, shortest to longest, but also factoring in any known time or resource issues with police stations. Files adjourned from the morning remand hearing list, files from later time zones, and files with sheriff transportation issues like ferry schedules should also be given some priority in the afternoon list, as should files involving cash bail which must be posted by 4:00 p.m. and files involving counsel who have scheduled matters in other courts at 2:00 p.m. Files not able to be heard that day will preferably be adjourned to the Bail JCM to be scheduled on another date or adjourned by the judge to a morning court list on another date. Bail hearings with longer time estimates should be adjourned to the Bail JCM Fix Date List to be scheduled. F. Files that are scheduled onto a virtual/hybrid bail courtroom list are not to be adjourned to the Justice Centre but must be adjourned to the JCM Fix Date List or to the 9:30 a.m. list on another virtual/hybrid bail court date.

	G. If counsel are unable to agree on the afternoon list, direction can be sought from the presiding judge when court starts. 4. All efforts will be made to have the afternoon list finalized prior to 1:30 p.m. Immediately following the afternoon list triage, the registry coordinator will email the triaged list to the sheriff coordinator, Crown office group proxy, court clerks and Bail JCM, and the registry coordinator will ensure JUSTIN is updated, which will update CDDS and PCSS. 5. The sheriff coordinator will immediately communicate with the police stations and courthouses to let them know when the accused are expected to be contacted for their bail hearing. 6. If there are any concerns about being able to complete the list, those concerns should be communicated to the Bail JCM as soon as possible so that they can determine whether another judge is available to hear any of the matters. As close as possible, court will start at 1:30 p.m. and proceed through the afternoon list. Where necessary, adjustments to the afternoon list may be made with the input of counsel and the judge. Adjustments should be communicated to the sheriff coordinator as soon as possible. When court commences, Crown counsel should be in a position to let the judge know what the afternoon list is and if the parties foresee any problems completing it. If they do, and the judge agrees, these concerns should be communicated to the Bail JCM through the clerk as soon as possible to determine whether alternative arrangements can be made.
1:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m.	Hearing of the afternoon list, as well as any files adjourned by the judge or Bail JCM from the morning court list.

5. The Court does not endorse any cut-off times for the processing of files as part of the bail process. However, the Court recognizes that stakeholders may establish cut-off times as part of their bail processes, but the stakeholders accept that in doing so there is a need for flexibility with enforcing cut-off times. The guiding principle is that bail hearings, including consent releases on new arrest files, are to be conducted at the earliest reasonable opportunity.
6. Consistent with that principle, bail hearings for new arrests are to be heard on the day they are scheduled into Court unless, pursuant to section 516 of the Criminal Code, the accused consents to having the matter heard on another day, or it is adjourned by the court. Bail hearings for new arrests are not to be adjourned simply because the estimated time to complete it is beyond a certain time length. The presiding judge or the Bail JCM will decide if a bail hearing needs to be adjourned due to a lack of court time to complete it. The Bail JCM may also schedule bail hearings to other available courts where necessary and counsel are available.

7. Unless released, new in custodies remanded to another day will continue to appear remotely into the virtual/hybrid bail courtroom from which they were remanded, but from a Correctional Centre, unless a judge orders otherwise. Remanded accused are to be adjourned to either the Bail JCM Fix Date List or to a morning court list.
8. Files do not return to their home court location until: (a) the bail hearing is completed, (b) a judge or JCM has directed the bail hearing be scheduled in another court location, (c) trial dates are scheduled, or (d) a judge or JCM directs otherwise.
9. If the matter is scheduled for a virtual/hybrid bail courtroom, it cannot be adjourned to the Justice Centre for evening bail.
10. If the accused is self-represented, the matter cannot be adjourned to initial appearance court: either the accused must exercise their right to have a bail hearing, or all initial appearance issues must be addressed before a judge in a virtual/hybrid bail courtroom or adjourned to a judge court in the home court location to conduct the arraignment before fixing a date for a trial or sentencing in the home court location, unless the sentencing can proceed in a virtual/hybrid bail courtroom.
11. Despite the virtual nature of the bail hearings, all the same evidentiary and procedural rules that apply to in-person proceedings should apply, like marking exhibits.
12. The Court expects counsel will use the Consent Requisition Form and the Consent Remand Form ("Consent Forms") whenever possible to cancel a scheduled virtual/hybrid bail hearing/appearance that will not be proceeding (so the Bail JCM can remove the matter from the hearing list) as follows:
 - a. With the exception of the direction regarding Consent Form submission set out in paras. b and c below, all the other directions and procedures set out in 2013 CPD-1 CCFM Practice Direction and CRIM 08 Criminal Caseflow Management Rules Forms and Procedure regarding the use of the Consent Requisition Form and the Consent Remand Form apply.
 - b. The Consent Forms are to be emailed by counsel to the applicable Virtual Bail JCM:

- c. The following summary chart has been included for counsel's quick reference only:

	Consent Remand Form	Consent Requisition Form
Form use	To adjourn a scheduled bail hearing/appearance date by Defence to another date without the accused or counsel having to appear in court (only used for in custody bail appearances)	To adjourn a scheduled non-trial out of custody or in custody appearances (including bail hearing/appearance) by Defence to another date without the accused or counsel having to appear in court Can also change the next appearance reason (i.e. from Bail Hearing to Sentencing), call-ahead a scheduled appearance date, and add files by Defence
When to submit the Consent Form by email to the applicable Virtual Bail JCM	1. 12:00 p.m.-4:30 p.m. the business day before for processing at 9:00 a.m. the day of the scheduled appearance date; or 2. Any time on the day of the scheduled appearance date	Anytime up until noon the business day before the scheduled appearance date
Defence counsel as agent or designated counsel	Yes	Yes
Consent required	Yes	Yes

Counsel signature required	No	No
Court appearance required	No	No
Self-represented accused	No	No

13. Crown and defence counsel shall submit any documents they wish the Court to consider for a bail hearing by following the process set out in CRIM 18.
14. For registry arrests that may or may not be added to a bail court list, see Notice 31 for the process to be followed.
15. The following directions aim to reduce the need for frequent court appearances while ensuring that the Court can effectively exercise its supervisory authority and uphold the accused's right to a timely bail hearing and trial:
 - a. If the accused has retained defence counsel but cannot proceed with a bail hearing, the accused should be remanded to a fix date on the Bail JCM Fix Date List.
 - b. If defence counsel is reasonably certain of being ready on the next appearance, the accused can be remanded to a morning court list for a bail hearing.
 - c. If the accused has not retained defence counsel, they must be remanded to a morning court list and not adjourned to the Bail JCM Fix Date List.
 - d. A day before the scheduled appearance, defence/duty counsel and the Crown should communicate about files on the Bail JCM Fix Date List and morning court list, and inform the Bail JCM which files will remain on the Bail JCM Fix Date List or be transferred to the morning court list for a bail hearing. Defence/duty counsel are encouraged whenever possible to contact accused in remand facilities on a date prior to the scheduled remand appearance. Due to call volume at those remand facilities, corrections/sheriffs may not be able to accommodate calls to remanded accused in the morning before court.
 - e. On the fix date, the Bail JCM may move a file from the Bail JCM Fix Date List to the morning court list for a bail hearing. The Crown should be given reasonable notice by defence/duty counsel of the intention to change the fix date into a hearing. If proper notice is not given, pursuant to s. 516 of the Criminal Code, a judge may decide to adjourn the hearing.

- f. Counsel should use the Consent Forms for appearance changes on the Bail JCM Fix Date List or morning court list so that as much as possible court appearances are reserved for matters where something substantive will occur.
- g. If the accused has been in custody for over 45 days without a bail hearing, counsel must appear before a judge to explain the delay. If no bail hearing occurs at this appearance, the Court may arraign the case and set a pre-trial conference (if CRIM 12 is applicable), a trial/preliminary inquiry, or issue other instructions. The judge may also return the matter to the home court location for further scheduling. The responsibility of monitoring the 45-day timeframe lies with counsel.

II. Bail Hearings on Weekday Evenings, Weekends, and Statutory Holidays

16. Files requiring bail hearings on weekdays that are not scheduled onto a daytime court list are spoken to by Crown counsel in the evening at the Justice Centre.
17. Bail hearings will be heard primarily by Judicial Justices at the Justice Centre on weekday evenings from 4:30 p.m. until 11:00 p.m. and on weekends and statutory holidays as set out in the table below. Bail hearings after 11:00 p.m. cannot ordinarily be accommodated.

18. The scheduled start times noted above are targeted start times only. Bail hearings may commence earlier. Public Prosecution Service of Canada (PPSC) files are often scheduled to start earlier.
19. Bail hearings at the Justice Centre are conducted virtually where all participants attend by videoconference, unless the accused is only able to attend by audioconference.

20. Despite the virtual nature of the bail hearings, all the same evidentiary and procedural rules that apply to in-person proceedings should apply, like marking exhibits.
21. All reasonable efforts must be made for new in-custodies not scheduled onto a weekday daytime court list (during regular court sitting hours) to be scheduled onto a weekday evening court list.
22. Where an accused appearing at the Justice Centre is to be remanded to the next scheduled weekday, the accused will be scheduled to the afternoon court list in the applicable virtual or hybrid Bail Courtroom, unless a Judicial Justice or Judge orders otherwise following a request by counsel. Accused being remanded beyond the next scheduled weekday can be scheduled on a morning court list.
23. Crown and defence counsel shall submit any documents they wish the Court to consider for a bail hearing by following the process set out in CRIM 18.
